

Engagement Session
National Inquiry into Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls
Reclaiming Power and Place
“Calls for Justice”

We would like to invite Indigenous people living off-First Nations communities to an engagement session hosted by the Women’s Equality Branch (Government of NB) to discuss with you the National Inquiry report’s “Calls for Justice”.

The objective of this session:

- Share Government of NB’s process during the National Inquiry’s truth gathering phase and next steps.
- Seek feedback from Indigenous people on the “Calls for Justice” – calls most meaningful for NB Indigenous women, girls, and organizations.
- Facilitate dialogue on working together on the “Calls for Justice” and continued engagement with Indigenous people in NB.

Date: November 24th, 2020

Time 6pm to 8pm

Location: Fredericton Inn

There will be limited space available due to social distancing requirements so please confirm participation as soon as possible by email to Sonja.perley@gnb.ca.
